Welcome and Call to Worship (Psalm 130)

I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning. O Israel, hope in the Lord! For with the Lord there is steadfast love, and with him is great power to redeem. It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Hymn

“It Is Well with My Soul”

Opening Prayer

Affirmation Of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

Lord God, we continue to experience change, uncertainty, and worry.
We've had another week of disruptions, waiting, and adjustment.
Through all of this, O Lord, we continue to receive your care and comfort.
You continue to bless us and do more than we could ever imagine.
Give us the wisdom we need to see your hand at work, and the faith to trust you even when we don't understand.
Amen.

Lord Jesus, in your earthly life you loved your neighbor perfectly.
You consoled the weeping, healed the broken, and strengthened the weak.
Give us grace and love that we may care for those around us.
Unite us in our work, so that we may glorify you as we tend to one another in this time of great need.
Amen.

God of all compassion and comfort, be near to those who are ill, afraid, or in isolation.
Bring comfort to the lonely; hope to the anxious; and light to those enveloped in darkness.
We remember you are present when we cannot be near family, loved ones, and friends.
We trust the Holy Spirit to minister to those we cannot reach or see face-to-face.
Amen.

Almighty God, may those caring for the sick receive strength and endurance as they give themselves to care for those in need.
Give wisdom and knowledge to researches, administrators, and all those working to combat this virus.
Grant our elected leaders unity to work together for the welfare and dignity of all people.
May we all put the interests of others before our own, remembering that Christ came to serve and not to be served.
Amen.

O God, you are our rock and refuge.
We will not fear, though the earth should change.
Though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea,
we will never be shaken, for you alone are our rock and salvation.
In the name of our Savior Jesus Christ, who taught us to pray together (Lord's Prayer...) Amen.

Benediction
