TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

July, 2020

COVID-19 and JULY 12 WORSHIP PLANS

The Session met Thursday, June 25, and determined plans for returning to in-person worship in our sanctuary on July 12. You will see these protocols outlined in the accompanying chart.

THE ELDERS DECIDED:

10:30 Worship. We'll worship at 10:30AM rather than 10AM to accommodate those attending Serendipity Sunday School class online at 8:45AM, giving them time to drive to Trinity for worship.

No Sunday School, no children's church or nursery.

Masks are requested, but not required. Those wearing masks will be seated separately from those not wearing masks.

We will record the worship service and offer a delayed broadcast after video editing Sunday afternoon. A member has offered to live-stream the worship service by personal iPhone on Facebook during 10:30AM worship, so at-home viewers can see a live feed.

Social distancing and hand sanitizing measures are in place.

YOU ARE FREE TO CHOOSE: The Elders are aware that some members are ready to worship in the sanctuary, some members are not, and some members need to remain at home due to health and vulnerability issues. If you are ill, running a fever, have a cough, or do not feel well, please remain at home.

You have permission without guilt to stay at home and worship online.

You have permission without guilt to resume in-person worship.

SURVEY RESULTS: To our poll asking you if will attend worship on July 12, 120 people responded:

Will you attend worship July 12:

Yes: 40

No: 80

If not July 12, when do you expect to return?

Later this summer: 22

This Fall: 40

won't be back this year: 10

TRINITY LEARNING CENTER IS CLOSED UNTIL JULY 13. Due to staff exposure to COVID-19, TLC has closed again until Monday, July 13. We hope and pray that affected staff remain free of infection and upon submission of re-test negative results we will reopen July 13. We pray for the safety and health of our precious children and their families, teachers, and staff.

MONITORING RISE OF COVID-19 CASES. If the rapid escalation of cases of COVID-19 in our community continues, and if that alters our plans and schedule, we will notify you well prior to July 12.

Thank you for your patience and your consideration as we make our way back to reopening Trinity safely and responsibly.

Dear Trinity Friends,

Thank you so much for this generous donation! We appreciate your monthly support and for the additional funding, too. This week we're taking inventory of our food supply – looking at not only the amount of food we have but also what kind of food. We kicked off a new partnership with Pathways for Change via their New Path Program that provides assistance with counseling, plus utilities help via United Ministries and employment skills via Career Source EscaRosa. Each week through the end of July, Manna will provide food to families that receive help through the New Path. We'll also provide food to any of Pathways' clients that seek counseling through their other services. We believe that investing our resources – and combining our resources – with other organizations is the best approach to helping individuals and families recover. I know Trinity has provided support to all three organizations – Manna, Pathways, and United Ministries. Thank you for supporting us!

We're also taking a look at how we can best utilize our food inventory this summer. With school out for the summer and the anticipated financial challenges that many in our community will face due to under or un-employment, we anticipate a number of people needing help. When we take a look at service March – May of this year compared to last year, the demand is much greater: 44% more families were helped; 30% more clients; 42% more food distributed. We anticipate that summer time assistance will be 20% - 30% greater than the same time last summer. Manna continues to find a way to help those in need because you make it possible. Thank you for your support. Please continue to keep us and those we serve in your thoughts and prayers.

DeDe Flounlacker, Executive Director of Manna.

Hey friends!

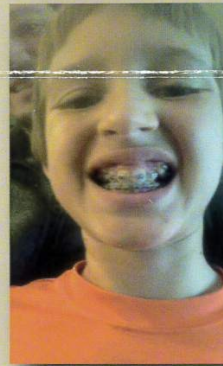

Even though many enterprises have come to a grinding halt in the last two months, we've still managed to live a lot of life. After returning from Uganda at the end of March, we went into self-isolation at a beach house in Florida for two weeks. God gave us a "mandatory vacation"! It was a great chance to catch our breath after the chaos of leaving Uganda, and reconnect as a family.

After coming out of isolation, we were able to stay with my parents at their farmhouse, next door to my sister's family with 8 kids. Social isolation has been really social! Etta was able to have her first appointment with her OB, just a week and a half before her delivery! Thank God that he was a family friend, and the same physician that delivered our last baby. No other OB would have taken us on that late in the pregnancy.

Jeweliana Haven Shehee was born on April 21st. We wanted to name her Jewel Haven, in memory of the New Jerusalem where we will finally all be reunited as a whole family with Jesus and our Lydia. But our other kids outvoted us and insisted on tacking the "iana" onto the end of her name like her two older sisters have. "Yana" means "He answers" in Hebrew, and He certainly has. We had three kids born before we lost Lydia, and now He given us three more after her!

Because of Covid, I was the only one allowed in Etta's hospital room, and I basically couldn't leave. It so happened that during our hospital stay we celebrated our 15 year wedding anniversary! God blessed this milestone anniversary with an all inclusive three day vacation at the Baptist Hospital resort, and gave us the best anniversary present ever - baby Jewel!

Life on the Farm

Since our family managed to get on health insurance, and since we were planted in Florida for an extra two months, we decided to catch up on all of the medical treatment that we can't get on the mission field. Before we leave Florida in mid-June, we will have had three surgeries, ten chiropractic adjustments, gotten two kids in glasses, and one kid in braces (not to mention countless other appointments and labs). So when you have six kids, this translates to an appointment every day!

In the meantime, the kids have been doubling up on homeschool, so that when we hit the road, they'll have a lot of free time to see America. That right! We're still planning on doing our road trip this summer!

Road Trip!!!

Some folks might call it crazy to pack up eight people into a 32-foot motorhome and travel coast-to-coast for four months straight. Some folks might call it crazy to plan a supportraising trip for our African missionaries in the midst of an economic downturn. Some folks might call it even crazier to plan a speaking tour at a time when people don't even assemble at church on Sunday mornings. But we prefer to think of all these things as opportunities for God to show Himself mighty!

Will, Etta, Micaiah (12), Joyceana (10), Levi (9), Isaac (4), Elliana (1), and Jewel (6 weeks)

Here are the places we hope to visit (and some of the surrounding areas). Please reach out to us if you'd like to see us and you're anywhere near.

- Chattanooga & Nashville, TN;
- Evansville, IN; Kansas City, MO;
- Loveland & Durango, CO;
- Los Angeles & Santa Maria, CA;
- Peoria, IL;
- Grand Rapids, MI;
- Lancaster, PA;
- West Jefferson, Rutherfordton, & Asheville, NC;
- Lawrenceville, GA;
- Jacksonville, Orlando, Sarasota, and Pensacola, FL

Thank you for your monthly support and special gifts! Every special gift you give in this season will help us get a little farther down the road. (Everything costs so much more in America!)
