TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

August, 2019

Are you ready to Rock and Roll?

Summer is about to give way to our Fall 2019 schedule and we have much in the works!

RALLY DAY SUNDAY August 25 Sunday School Fall Semester begins.

Come enjoy our pancake breakfast at 8:45AM and hear about children, youth, and adult educational plans. Sign up for new classes and offerings.

EDUCATION WING RENOVATIONS BEGIN NEXT WEEK: July 29-August 9 our preschool will close for two weeks for renovations to nursery rooms, classrooms, and bathrooms. Much needed electrical updates, new light fixtures, new flooring, and painting begin our 4-phase renovations in 2019 and 2020. We will address needs in four classrooms and both the public and classroom bathrooms, some of which have not been updated since the building was built in the 1960's. TLC preschool will be using the restrooms in the church narthex during construction. The project is expected to take four weeks, some work will be completed after TLC reopens August 12 by consolidation and cooperation for a brief period. How exciting to make progress! This first phase will be funded from Legacy Funds and Restricted Funds.

Renovations to the remaining classrooms, hallway, and children's church room are scheduled for May/June 2020, and the final phase upgrades to TLC Office and Workroom and exterior breezeway are scheduled for later in 2020. We will conduct a Capital Funds drive in 2020 to accommodate these renovations.

SMALL GROUP "BOOK TASTING" AUGUST 11 AFTER WORSHIP. Our Small Group ministry is expanding for 2019-2020, and we invite you to come see what is planned for the entire year September 2019 to May 2020. See the books and resources planned for use and enjoy tasty treats in the parlor.

A congregation-wide emphasis on discipleship will run September -October 2019, then in January 2020 we will focus congregation wide on Bible knowledge. An Advent Study opportunity will occur November-December. Our third congregation-wide emphasis on Prayer in March-April 2020 will use the intriguing method of "Draw the Circle" for forty days of prayer for Lent. After Easter, a short term discipleship/Bible exploration will be offered. June-July 2020 will focus on the Three S's: social gatherings, service projects, and short-term studies. With this intentional plan, we will offer you varied paths to meet new people in the church, varied experiences, and varied approaches to personal spiritual development that will foster your life in Christ and in our congregation! Come "taste and see that the Lord is good" and that our life together is delicious too!

2019 Montreat Conferences
Different Montreats, but the same great experience!

That was the motto this year, because our middle schoolers, for the first time, attended the Montreat Middle School Conference at Maryville College. Our high schoolers made the annual trek to the Montreat Youth Conference, enjoying the natural beauty of North Carolina and an engaging week of speakers and dynamic worship. Daniel and Robin Akerman chaperoned the high school trip, and Stephanie Peterson and I joined the middle schoolers. As chaperones, we thank our youth for representing Trinity so very well. It's impossible to capture all that was experienced, so I encourage you to ask our youth about their experience. What did they learn? How were they challenged by the speakers? What was the highlight? They have lots to share!

Now with all our summer travel behind us, we look ahead to getting back into our normal programming and events. Here's what's coming:

- Youth Kick-Off Party, August 18 at 5:00 (Trinity)
- Rally Day, August 25. Pancake breakfast at 8:45
- Sunday School classes resume September 1 at 8:45

Enjoy the remaining weeks of summer. We look forward to great and eventful Fall semester.

Grace & Peace,

Brian

Adam Hamilton, senior pastor of the 22,000 member United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas, the largest church in the denomination, lists nine qualities of an effective pastor in his book, Leading Beyond the Walls, Developing Congregations with a Heart for the Unchurched. Frank Beall has exhibited these qualities through an extraordinary sixty years of ministry.

Integrity: is defined as discerning what is right and wrong and acting on what you have discerned. Over the years, Frank has addressed social problems that cried out for biblical and theological influence. He has given sermons on prayer in public schools, race issues, abortion, homosexuality, racism, right to die. His motivation was not to get people to adhere to his views but to provide a perspective of how to view them. Four of the sermons on issues were discussed in small groups at Wednesday night suppers.

Humility: Frank sees himself as a servant of the church and of others. He would like to be remembered as faithful to Jesus Christ, to his wife, family, the churches he served, to his friends, and communities where he has lived, and to his country.

Passion: Frank makes no effort to conceal his passion for Alabama football, especially from Auburn friends. He is passionate about physical fitness from tennis, running, and golf in his younger years, and now lap swimming. His first passion, however, is pastoral care with a gift for remembering names and making others feel important. His passion for reading keeps him abreast of issues of the day and has informed sermons on timely topics.

Vision: When Frank arrived as the new minister in 1971, Trinity had 350 members and was not involved in the community. He held a retreat for the session and formed a long range planning committee which set three goals: the church would become involved in community service, would be opened for meetings of community groups, and when Trinity had 600 members, a new church would be started. These goals were achieved and changed the philosophy of the church which continues to this day.

Perseverance: In the mid 80's, the Session discussed planting another new church versus renovating the building and adding an addition. It was decided that both could be done. This was a key moment in Trinity's history. Northminster Church was planted with fifty Trinity members going to help form the new congregation on Nine Mile Road, the activities center was built, and administrative area and sanctuary were renovated.

Decisiveness and Risk Taking: Frank felt the call to ministry in junior high school. He grew up in a home where the Baptist church was a big part of their lives and attended Baylor University, going on to graduate from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. His first call was as an associate to First Baptist Church in Columbus, Georgia, a 2800 member congregation. When the senior minister left, they turned the church over to him and at age 26, he was head of staff for eleven months. It became clear to him that he did not fit into the Baptist denomination with its conservative and fundamental beliefs. He was drawn to Presbyterianism and tried it out by attending Columbia Seminary in Decatur, Georgia, for a year and was welcomed and found a fit with the style of worship and social outlook. He was called to Henry Memorial Presbyterian Church in Dublin, Georgia, where he met Sylvia, who would become his wife. Frank looks back with pride that he had a good beginning in ministry at First Baptist in Columbus.

Being Purpose-driven: One of Frank's biggest influencers was E. Stanley Jones, an American 20th-century Methodist missionary and theologian. Jones believed that Jesus was the agent of creation, which meant that God's laws could not be broken and that the way of grace and forgiveness was built into the universe. Frank read most of what Jones wrote.

Communication Skills: Frank has the ability to preach and interpret scripture in ways that people understand, making the Bible relevant to current social and economic issues. He adapted to the sound bite world, making sermons short and to the point.

Encouragement and Mentoring: Frank feels that nothing takes the place of good pastoral care. It is the key to every effective ministry. People want to know that they are loved and cared for. One way that Frank extended encouragement and mentoring, following retirement from his 26 year ministry at Trinity in 1997, was to serve nine different congregations in Alabama and Florida as interim pastor. These were one to two year placements as head of staff for churches searching for a new pastor. His role as interim was to help churches get through the transitional time and to reassure them during the process, sharing what he had learned in his years of ministry.

A Personal Relationship with Jesus Christ: When asked what words of wisdom he would pass on to his great grandchildren, Frank replied that through all the changing circumstances, the one constant is Jesus. Frank has seen the race issue come to a head, the hippie culture, space age, Korea, Vietnam, ordination of women, gays and lesbians. These have happened during his years of ministry yet there is one constant. Jesus is the way, the truth, the life, the same yesterday, today and forever. When Frank meets God he will thank Him for his life, Sylvia, children, friends and all the opportunities he has had.

Thank you, Frank, for faithfulness in 60 years of ministry.

WELCOME NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR, CLARA RIGGLEMAN

Clara Rigglesman, our new Director of Music, brings a rich legacy in worship ministry with extensive experience as a music and creative arts director. With a broad range of knowledge in worship genres, she worked with many worship teams cross-generationally to strengthen their skills and stir their passion for worship. Her vision is to create an atmosphere of worship where God and people connect. She is passionate about creating a platform for others to recognize their personal and musical potential and use their gifts for the glory of God.

Clara received her master's degree at the University of West Florida in Leadership and Communication. She earned a Bachelors of Art in Music and Vocal Performance from Christopher Newport University. Clara carries a Contemporary Commercial Music Vocal Pedagogy certification from Shenandoah Conservatory. She studied graduate level choral conducting at University of Southern Mississippi.

A native of Virginia, Clara and her husband, Steve, raised two sons, who live in the local region with their families. Steve, retired from the Air Force, works as a logistician at Gulf Air Group in Crestview, FL.

A note of thanks...

Thank you to the Music Director Search Committee, the Session, Pastors Hugh and Brian, Sandy and Tasha, and the gracious people of Trinity for your warm embrace in welcoming Steve and me. I am deeply grateful for your kindness, generosity, and confidence. I believe God has something amazing in store for Trinity, and I am humbled to be a part.

Sincerely,

Perception Matters

"My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast.

I will sing and give praise...

I will awaken the dawn...

For Your mercy reaches to unto the heavens,
and Your truth unto the clouds.

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;

Let Your glory be above all the earth"

Psalm 57:7-11

"Our perception of God determines our perception of worship" (A.W. Tozer).

May we enlarge our perception, our awareness, of God as we behold His unending mercy and abounding truth. May we join the psalmist in saying, "Be exalted, O God, be exalted!"

An Invitation to the Creatives:

Be a part of the creatives at Trinity!

We are singers, musicians, artists, actors, orators, and servants—many expressions of worship.

Spiritual Seekers Becoming Transformed Believers .

The small group ministry team appreciates our volunteers who have agreed to host/lead a small group for our church-wide study of Rick Warren's Purpose Driven Life-expanded edition which begins Sept. 8, 2019. We are still looking for host/leaders and will sign up group participants soon. Watch for the sign ups in church and on mytrinity.com. Our team goal is to get 100 involved studying God's word, experiencing the Life of Christ, and becoming His disciples through our small group experiences.

DATES to remember: Sunday, Aug. 11th , after church. Join us for our "Book Tasting" where you can sample our selections we suggest for the year. We have planned three church-wide studies along with other options between those studies. Come sample the books and sample our food treats!

Also, September 8th is the day we will all start reading our 40 days of Purpose Driven Life. We will meet weekly with our small groups to discuss, share, and grow in love together.

Thank you!

Dear Trinity Family,

Thank you for the warm and heartfelt gift of the embroidered blanket for my graduation. The gift really means a lot to me as it will provide a warm connection to home as I begin college. God Bless, John Michael Huggins

Dear Trinity,

I've been blessed. God is good and your congregation's prayers have helped me through my surgery. I truly feel that God has done wonderful things for me. He found the doctors that knew how to fix me. God has helped me get stronger. I will start rehab soon so that I can go back to work. The past 6 weeks have been better because of your prayers and the signed prayer cards that I have received. Thank you so much! Jeffrey Turner

Dear Trinity,

I am sure that Freddie has told you by now that her cousin Porter died on June 20. I just want to tell you again how much your prayer cards meant to Porter. If we went two days with no mail, he would say, "Well, we should have one soon from the Florida Presbyterians!" Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness. Y S I C, Marcia

She Believed She Could, So She Did | Pace Center for Girls Class of 2019

On June 20th, thirty-one Pace girls were celebrated in our 2019 graduation ceremony at Temple Beth El. These young women donned pink caps and gowns to cross the stage and receive their diplomas, proud and excited about brighter futures. A record-setting sixteen of the graduates completed their education through Pace's Girls Earning Diplomas (GED) Program.

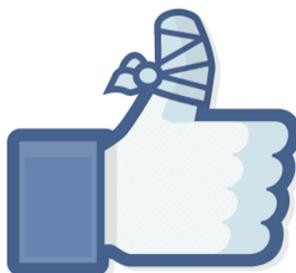

Overcoming immeasurable adversity in their young lives, Pace girls redefine the meaning of courage and strength as they make positive strides in pursuit of their goals and dreams.

A very special thank you to YOU and our supportive community. With your help, Pace is finding the great in every girl.

HATS HATS HATS

Annette Wells' daughter will be visiting Trinity Presbyterian Church Sunday, September 8th. In memory of that gracious and fun-loving mother, let's wear a hat to church.

The Florida Presbytery has asked their churches to donate Band-Aids to be placed in "Gift of the Heart" kits, which are passed out to assist communities adversely affected by crises and catastrophic events. These kits will be assembled at the Presbytery of Florida Coordinating Team Meeting August 24th. Please drop your donations in the box in the Narthex. Our local PW officers will take them to the CT meeting August 24th. Thank you!

News from Will and Etta Shehee, Trinity's Send56 missionary partners in Tororo, Uganda. The Jesus film referred to was released in 1979 and is taken from the Gospel of Luke, following his life from birth to death. It is shown by Send56 missionaries using a solar powered projector in remote areas of Uganda. For more information about Send56 visit www.send56.org.

A TIME FOR PRAYER:

Hundreds Receive Salvation!

Over the last few weeks, Send56 missionaries showed the Jesus film in several locations.

Astonishing reports have come back that the turnout in two separate areas was well over a thousand and hundreds received salvation, accepting Jesus! As missionaries are boldly showing the film in hard and dark areas, please pray for:

Softening of hearts to the voice of the Holy Spirit.

Many eyes to be opened to see that Jesus is more than just a man or a prophet but the Son of God!

Protection for missionaries when they show the film in areas that can be hostile to the gospel.

Also, safety for those who make a decision to turn from Islam and follow Christ!

Thank you for agreeing with us for the name of Christ to be glorified in the nations!
