Prelude

“Sleepers Wake! A Voice Is Calling”

Johann Sebastian Bach

Call to Worship:

I will sing of your steadfast love, O Lord,
and proclaim your faithfulness to all generations.
Your steadfast love endures forever.
Your faithfulness is as high as the heavens.
Happy are those who sing your praise
and extol your righteousness all the day.

Hymn

“We Walk by Faith and Not by Sight”

Opening Prayer

Steadfast God, you greet us as a loving parent and patiently love us beyond all measure.
Great is your faithfulness.
May we offer that same kindness to all whom we encounter, knowing it is Christ whom we greet as we welcome others. Amen.

Confession of Faith: The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried. He descended into hell; the third day he arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and life everlasting. Amen.

Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Please greet each other, “Peace be with you.”

Gloria Patri

Prayer Response: “A Hard, Deep Call to Obedience,” Awed To Heaven, Rooted in Earth: Prayers of Walter Bruggeman, Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 2003, 90.

You are the God who makes extravagant promises. We relish your great promises of fidelity...and presence...and solidarity...and we exude in them. Only to find out, always too late, that your promise always comes in the midst of a hard, deep call to obedience.

You are the God who calls people like us, and the long list of mothers and fathers before us, who trusted the promise enough to keep the call. So we give thanks that you are a calling God, who calls always to dangerous new places.

We pray enough of your grace and mercy among us that we may be among those who believe in your promises enough to respond to your call.

We pray in Jesus, who embodied your promise and enacted your call....

(Adapted; Feasting on The Word, Liturgies for Year A, Vol. 2, Proper 7. Kimberly Bracken Long, 48)

Thank you for those who have chosen to speak your reconciling word in this age, and for those who have chosen to accept it.

Thank you for those who have chosen to speak the hard word of justice, and for those who have chosen to act upon it.

Blessed are you, caring God: you hear the cries of the poor, you see the tears in the eyes of all who mourn, you know the pain of those who are in anguish, and you come to the side of the lonely, the oppressed, the beaten down. Grant us your mercy.

Blessed are you, God of peace: you call us to make violence cease and to place our trust in You who bears us up. Give comfort and courage to the oppressed and raise up peacemakers among your peoples; confound those who put their trust in power and control.

Blessed are you, God of justice: you desire that all be one, that all be honored, that all be valued. Erase prejudice and class divisions; bring strength to those who are persecuted, and heal those who believe that destruction is the path of righteousness.

Blessed One, turn us to your ways. Make us bold. Increase our passion for what is good. Inspire us with the witness of those who have gone before us and made the sacrifices necessary to bring the better good for the world.

Grant us mercy and wisdom as we pray . . . Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn

“O Jesus, I Have Promised”

Benediction

Postlude

“Recession”
